

Kittery's Historic, Cultural & Archaeological Resources

CENTURIES-LONG HISTORY & MANY EXTANT HISTORIC RESOURCES

- Humans have inhabited the Kittery area for centuries, beginning with Native peoples, the Abenakis, who sought shellfish along the coast, and Europeans who came in the early 1600s, establishing the Town of Kittery in 1647 making it the oldest incorporated town in the State of Maine. Many of Kittery's natural features and circulation routes retain Abenaki or early European settlers' names.
- Three major activities have dominated Kittery's economy over its 300+-year history and shaped its landscape -- military fortifications, fishing, shipbuilding and tourism. Forts have stood in Kittery near the mouth of the Piscataqua River since the early 1700s, established first to protect from British invasion, and later domestic and foreign wars. Shipbuilding came to dominate the Kittery economy beginning in the mid-1600s, and continues today in the form of submarine repair and retrofitting at the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, established in 1800. Beginning in the mid-1800s, Kittery became a tourist destination, with several large hotels built along the coast and one at Appledore Island in the Isles of Shoals. In the late-20th century Kittery became a regional shopping destination, with the addition of the Kittery Outlets along Route 1.
- Kittery retains many historic buildings and landscapes, some dating to the earliest European settlement. The town has listed three districts (First Congregational Church, Isles of Shoals and Portsmouth Naval Shipyard) on the National Register of Historic Places, as well as thirteen individual properties and one monument.
- One of the individually-listed properties -- the Lady Pepperrell House -- also has been designated a National Historic Landmark, one of 44 statewide and one of 5 in York County.
- Two local repositories contain a majority of artifacts documenting Kittery's history, the Kittery Historical and Naval Museum and the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard Museum. The former (a private organization) is open seasonally, and the latter (operated by the U. S. Government) is accessible by pre-arranged tour only. Additional historical materials (primarily documents) are held by the Town Clerk and in the Maine Room of the Rice Public Library.
- Much of Kittery's history lies within historic landscapes scattered throughout the town, including the two forts, Wood Island Life Saving Station, Celia Thaxter's Garden (Isles of Shoals), remains of train and trolley systems, and over 130 cemeteries and burying grounds.

SUPPORT FOR LOCAL ARTS AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

- Kittery is home to many working artists and several public and private organizations provide venues for showcasing artists' work.
- The Kittery Community Center, a facility owned and operated by the town, contains the 171-seat STAR Theatre as well as the Morgen Gallery, an exhibit space located in the heart of the center.
- The former Wentworth Dennett Elementary School, located on Government Street, has been successfully renovated to provide artists' studio spaces.

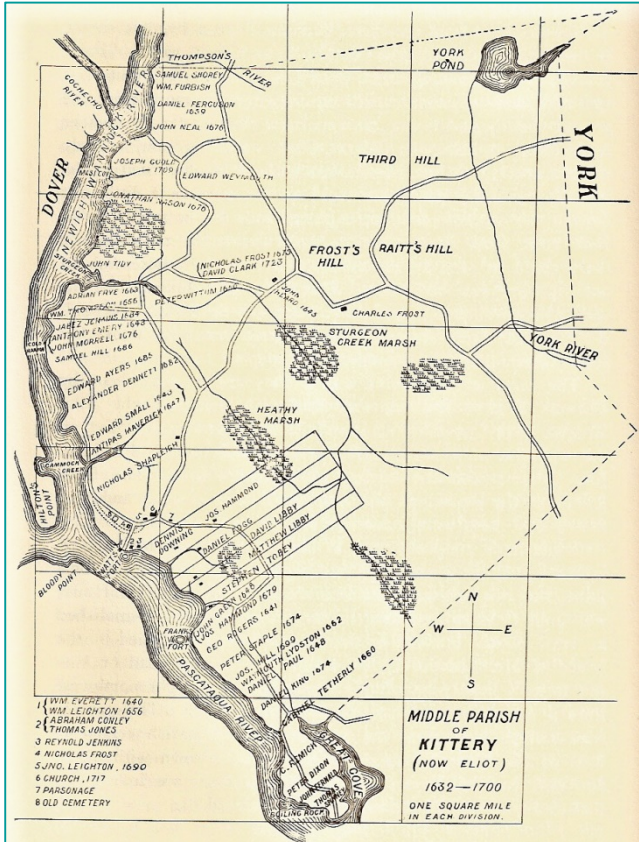

The Lady Pepperrell House, built in 1760, is a National Historic Landmark and one of the most treasured historic properties in the Town of Kittery.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

- Kittery's historic and cultural resources possess local, regional and national significance, and therefore merit protection.
- The town lacks an historical commission or other entity to serve as a steward for historic resources and help ensure their protection.
- The town lacks a comprehensive inventory of historic resources and a strategy to preserve and protect them.
- The existing Shoreline Overlay Zone has provided a mechanism for protecting the town's coastline from the impact of new development. Similar approaches to historic resource protection are needed in other parts of town.
- The energized local arts community contributes significantly to the quality of life in Kittery.

Kittery Comprehensive Plan: Inventory and Assessment of Existing Conditions

Images of Kittery provide highlights of its past:

- A map depicting Kittery in the 17th century (far left) illustrates the early settlement's close association with the Piscataqua River
- The Isles of Shoals (center top), an early fishing center, later became home to a large hotel
- The Portsmouth Naval Shipyard (center middle), established in 1800, continues as a major industry today
- The Champernowne Hotel (far right), built in 1890, was one of several late 19th and early 20th century resorts dotting Kittery's coastline
- Government Street, ca. 1900 (bottom), served pedestrians, horse-drawn vehicles, and trolleys
